Psalm 146

ANTIPHON (Choir 1st time, All 2nd time): THE heathen shall fear thy | Name, O | LORD: and all the kings of the | earth thy | ma- jes- | ty. When the LORD shall | build up | Syon: and when his | glo- ry | shall ap- | pear.

ALL

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord | O my | soul : while I live | I will | praise the | Lord.

While I have | an-y | being : I will sing | prais-es | to my | God;

Put not your | trust in | princes : nor in flesh and | blood which | can-not | save;

For when their breath goes from them they return a- | gain · to the | earth : and on that day | all their | thoughts | perish;

Blessed are those whose help is the | God of | Jacob : whose hope is | in the | Lord their | God;

The God who made | heaven · and | earth : the sea and | all that | is in | them.

Who keeps | faith for- | ever : who deals justice to | those that | are op- | pressed.

The Lord gives | food · to the | hungry : and | sets the | cap-tives | free.

The Lord gives | sight to · the | blind : the Lord lifts up | those that | are bowed | down.

The Lord | loves the | righteous : the Lord cares for the | stran-ger | in the | land.

He upholds the widow | and the | fatherless : As for the way of the wicked, he | turns it | up-side | down.

The Lord shall be | king for- | ever : your God, O Zion, shall reign through all gene- | ra-tions, | Praise the | Lord.

Repeat antiphon once only

EPISTLEHebrews 9. 24-28*

Christ has entered, not into a sanctuary made with hands, a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer Himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the Holy Place yearly with blood not his own; for then He would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, He has appeared once for all at the end of the age to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. And just as it is appointed for men to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for Him.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

HYMNO Son of God428*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

O sing unto the LORD a new song: for he hath done mar- vel- lous things. LOOK down, O LORD, to help me; let them be ashamed, and confounded together, that seek after my soul to des- troy it: look down, O LORD, to help me.

✠ GOSPELMark 12. 38-44*

In His teaching Jesus said to the crowds, “Beware of the scribes, who like to go about in long robes, and to have salutations in the market places and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at feasts, who devour widows’ houses and for a pretence make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

And He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the multitude putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came, and put in two copper coins, which make a penny. And He called His disciples to Him, and said to them, “Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.

Dear Parishioners,

The gift the widow gave to the temple treasury was not just two small copper coins. It was a gift of devotion and faith. By giving to the temple the only money she had — the cost of her family's next meal — she was expressing a devotion to God that is quite rare. In his book about Mother Teresa Something Beautiful for God Malcolm Muggeridge tells about an Australian man who was so impressed with her work among the poorest of the poor in India that he gave her a large donation. But he also did more than that, for he said, "Money's outside of me ... I want to give something of me." And so he stayed a while and shaved the sick men, helped out around the hospital, and spent time talking with the sick and dying, sharing words of encouragement and cheer.

The people whom Jesus saw in the temple making substantial contributions of cash were not wrong. But what they were giving, when it came out of a much larger abundance, was as the Australian said, outside of themselves. They had plenty left. The widow, who gave until she had nothing left, was giving of herself. Well, who do you identify with in this story: Those who gave out of their abundance? The woman who gave sacrificially? The people who held back and gave nothing at all? For another perspective, try to think about this story from the point of view of the temple administrators. We are gathered here today as a church, and some of us are involved in its administration, so thinking about the story from that perspective should not be too hard.

As a church, we cannot function very long without money. We cannot do our part in keeping missionaries in many areas of the world and heat our own building without money. We can't do much local mission work without money, either, so we need some of those substantial gifts like those Jesus saw other people placing in the temple treasury. But we also need the widow's gift. We need the kind of devotion that is self-giving and that is costly in the deeper sense of the word. We need the kind of devotion to God's causes that makes people willing to give of themselves. Otherwise the money is no good.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Robert
